

Vastned sells Zeewolde retail properties

Rotterdam, 23 March 2012–Vastned, the European retail property investment fund focusing on venues for premium shopping, has sold two retail properties at Kerkstraat 6-18 and Kerkplein 23-26 in Zeewolde for € 2.8 million.

This sale is in line with Vastned's updated strategy, which aims to realise a portfolio of the best retail properties in the most popular shopping streets.

The properties were bought by Amres Groep, which is active in the area of property partnerships. Cushman & Wakefield advised the purchaser in this transaction. The transfer has already taken place.

Jacqueline van der Mispel, director of Vastned Netherlands: 'We are step by step rolling out our strategy to withdraw from the provinces and concentrate on the very best streets in the better shopping cities. The sale of our retail properties in Zeewolde is in line with that.'
